MEN ON STRIKE PROMISE FIGHT

It Will be Marked by No Violence And Will Depend on Sentiment.

JAPS GO TO WORK TODAY

With Them Were Aliens of Nearly Every Nation-Union Men Only Watch.

Appeal is Made to Commercial Club To Act as Intermediary in Bringing About Settlement,

The only case of disorder reported to the police in consequence of the strike was that of a non-union Americar who had been at work today with the aliens, and who refused to give his name to the police. He had left the works at noon and was on his way to a Second South eating house wien he was set upon by three men the police declare to have been strikers. He was more seared than injured, however, but was not to be seen after work was resumed at 1 o'clock. No arrests were

At the blowing of the whistle at 1 o'clock this afternoon, nine men respended, the others, Japs, Greeks, Austrians and others, having decided not to go on with the job as strikebreakers. The nine men who did respoud were put to work cleaning up the rubbish in the basement, but were not putting up any structural iron.

Supt. Holstrom for the steel company says that the strike is not authorized by the international officers, and he intends to begin negotiations with them to bring matters to a settle-

President Halloran, the members of the board of governors, and others influential in business circles, waited upon the general contractors, James Stewart & Co., after a meeting held at noon. They went for the purpose of stopping work on the building until satisfactory arrangements were made to put only American union labor at work. The work being at a standstill their visit was without result in this direction. The club, however, takes the position that the construction must not be pushed until such labor is employed.

The confing of workers from the east is expected this afternoon, and the result is not known, for their coming is certain to place added complications In the situation.

Work on the new Commercial club with a crew composed of Japanese, Greeks and Italians in place of union structural iron workers.

Superintendent J. E. Holstrom, of the Construction company, announces that a force of skilled workmen is being brought from the East to be employed on the building.

The local union of the International Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, began active work today to enlist the sympathy and assistance of the Salt Lake business men and Commercial club in its fight.

The differences existing between the union and the Minneapolis Steel & Machinery company, subcontractors or the building, arise from the refusal of the company to meet the demad for a 56% cents per hour wage schedule, instead of 50 cents.

With a motley crew of Japanese, Greeks, Italians, and a sprinkling of English-speaking men, and amid the taunts and jeers of several hundred union men, their sympathizers, and a crowd of the curious, the tie-up in the construction of the Commercial club construction of the Commercial club building was broken this morning, and the creetion of the structural iron and steel framework begun.

UNUSUAL SIGHT A MAGNET.

After two weeks of haggling over the wage scale, in which stubbornness and deflance were shown on the two sides, the contractors and the structural ironworkers' union, the builders put into effect the plans which they have been pletly working out the past few days. when the whistle blew at 8 o'clock this morning a gang of about 65 men, a near aggregation of "all nations." but Japanese predominating, stepped into the excavation for the new home of the Commercial club and waited for the foremen to tell them what to do. At almost the same instant the crowd began to gather, and in a few minutes the board fence surrounding the excavation was lined with the union men and those attracted by the unusual specta-cle of Japanese and Greek "strike-function."

Although not anticipating any trouble, yet in order to take all precautionary measures and prevent any outtonary measures and prevent any out-break or attack upon the laborers, the contractors had summoned the aid of the sheriff's office and the police, as well as hiring a number of special men. Sheriff Sharp with seven deputies, and two policemen were on hand, while special officers circulated abong the

There was absolutely no disturbance, however, nor any show of attempt to prevent the beginning of work, and the union men contented themselves with running fire of sarcastic commen about the emplayment of Japs an Greeks to work on a public building.

BITTER FIGHT PROMISED. The employment of foreigners on the construction of the Commercial club construction of the Commercial club building promises to result in one of the most bitter fights that has stirred aday or a year will in all probability maday or a year will include the building and the sub-contractor for the iron and steel work of the building, and the local lodge No. 27, of the International Bridge & Structural Ironworkers are the principals, has something of a new phase in labor strife, since there is neither a strike, nor a lock-out-simply a refusal of the union men to work at the proferred wage scale, and the employment of Japs and Greeks as common laborers by the contractors until the arrival of skilled men from the east,

SUMMARY OF SITUATION. SUMMARY OF SITUATION.

The situation summed up is that the union demands a wage scale of 5614 cents per hour; the contractors refuse to pay more than 50 cents per hour, and have carried out their declaration by the employment of cheap labor, until the arrival of a force of workmen from the east, some of whom are due in the city today and the remainder within a few days.

Work was to have been begun by the Minneapolis Steel & Machinery company two weeks ago, but the union men refused to begin until assued of their demand for a wage of 5614 cents per hour. The company refused to accede to the demand and since they have succeeded only in working one full day and several half-days with a small force of workmen, until this morning.

The promise of a fight is manifested.

small force of workmen, until this morning.

The promise of a fight is manifested in the emphatically hopeful feeling on both sides. J. E. Holstrom, superintendent for the construction company, expressed himself as well pleased this morning with the outlook and was confident that work would be carried on continuously now without any serious hindrance. J. E. Munsey, business agent for the union, was equally confident that the terms of the union will be met and the union workers placed on the job. This, Mr. Munsey helleves will be accomplished and brought about by the arousal of public sympathy.

To a "News" reporter this merning.
Superintendent Holstrom said: HOLSTROM'S VIEW.

"We have got fairly well started now, and I think we can continue without any trouble. We have about 65 men at work, and will put on more as we can get them. Of course, this is not skilled labor, but that is not required at the present stage of the work. We have a number of men on the way from the cast, and some of them should arrive here today. With these we will be able to get along all right.

"We do not anticipate any trouble.

'We do not anticipate any trouble. "We do not anticipate any trouble. There's no need for it. There is no strike. It is simply that the union here demands 56½ cents per hour while we feel that we can't pay any more than 50 cents, the regular scale. If any of these men want to come to work at the wages we offer we will be glad to have them."

THE IRONWORKERS' SIDE.

Mr. Munsey, on his side, declares that the contracting firm had two months' previous notice of the increase in the wage scale, and insists that the wage asked for is the recognized scale now. A meeting of the executive committee of the union was held this forenoon at which the matter of the employment of the Japs and Greeks was gone over and a line of action laid out. Following the meeting, Mr. Munsey said: "It is an outrage that Japs and tris an outrage that Japs and Greeks should be employed on a public building, such as the Commercial club is to be, and we hope to win in our demands by arousing the public sentiment. We are asking nothing but what is right, and we will be able to present this to the business men of the city. this to the business men of the city. We are sure to get their help, and in that way win our fight.

"We are in a fight now, but it is going to be a peaceable one, and there is no danger of any violence being used. I have cautioned our men against this, and the Japs will not be prevented by force from working."

INTERMEDIARY SOUGHT. Following the meeting of the union men a committee called on Fisher Harris and ther members of the Com-mercial cub to mist their activities in bringing about a settlement with the contracting form that would result in the discharge of the foreign labor and the employment of the union men.

Although an immense crowd congregated about the vicinity of the new building early this morning after work was begun, it soon dwindled away, and during the foreneon, there were not more than 50 loungers about the place. At noon a few more gathered, but there was no demonstration, although a few union men approached some of the workers in an attempt to induce them to leave the job. During the noon hour the union men gathered in little knots expressing their indignation. When one would get too excited or condemnatory in his denouncement of the contractors who would hire Japs, he was cautioned by the more cool-headed, and the conversations generally were carried on in low tones.

"What's the use of doing anything, or starting anything? You'd only get plugged by some of these deputies."

"Well, I wish one of those beams would fall on a Jap and kill him."

"Geo. is takes? 20 or 20 of those fellows." "Gee, it takes 20 or 30 of those fellows to do what two or three of us could."

The above were some of the running comments among the onlookers. noon the deputies and specials were still on the ground, but found no ocasion for interference.

Engineer Mickeljohn Identified Fred Totensen as Man Who Threatened Him

Omaha, Neb., June 2 .-- When the three men arrested and charged with holding up and robbing the mail car on the Union Pacific Overland Limited the night of May 22, were arraigned before Judge Munger in the United States court today it was apparent the case would probably last two days. Attorneys for the prisoners indicated that the government would be asked to show so far as possible what evidence it has to present against the men under arrest.

Alexander Mieckeljohn, the engineer in the cab the night of the holdup was the first witness called. An automatic revolver placed at his cheek was the inducement presented to cause En-gineer Micklejohn to stop his train. Micklejohn identified Fred Torten-sen, one of the defendants, as the man who had thus threatened him, pointing

In the course of his talk Mr. Young said; "Democracy must be brought about by higher education. There can be no democracy of eduation without the state university. Only the sons of the wealthy can secure education in alien institutions, and such was the deplorable condition in times past. But such is not the case at present. We have a faculty competent to compete with the best in the country; credits from our school are acceptable anywhere; our mining school is second to no institution in the United. States; in fact, the university has passed its pubescent state and there is no presumption in asking the best support of all citizens of the state.

"We are in an atmosphere of the West, All men of Utah are men of the West. Utah is building up a commonwealth with is own atmosphere and that atmosphere can only be acquired in the local state university. The student who gets his professional training from an alien institution absorbs the atmosphere of the locality of his school, and therefore he is in a way effeminated in his coping with western men in a western community. The state offers such as can be obtained, nowhere else—contact with men of, your own sympathy, men who will be the professional and social leaders in the future. The students are all given an equal opportunity to make the the professional and social leaders in the future. The students are all given an equal opportunity to make the best of themselves."

SENATOR GORE

ASTONISHES SENATE

Washington, June 2.—Astonishing the senate by the citation of a long list of cotton and woolen and manufacturing companies and giving their earnings, capital stock, surplus, etc. Senator Gore again today undertook the task of showing that corporations engaged in the cotton and woolen industries were making very large earnings. The speech was one that no other senator would have attempted without constant references to notes, but the blind statesman from the southwest found no difficulty in giving off-hand the greatest varieties of details without the ability to assist his memory in any way. The senate his memory in any way. The senate had promptly begun the day's ousiness by resuming consideration of the cotton schedule of the tariff bill and Mr. Gore was the first speaker. Mr. Core was the first speaker.
Referring to the cotton and woolen manufacturers and in a rasping and sinister tone the Oklahema senator said he did not blame them for their earnings.

"I know they are intelligent elit-zens," he said, "judging from their business success and from their selec-tion of United States senators." He referred in sarcastic languaga to the statement made yesterdey by Senator Lodge that some of these large earnings resulted from sales of these large earnings resulted from sales of the second of large earnings resulted from sales of real estate fortunately acquired many years ago and said that the stock of the Troy Cotton & Woolen company of Massachusetts had been advertised as earning 67 per cent. in 1907 without reference to profits from real estate sales. He suspected, he said, "that the good natured philanthropic manufacturers did not divide their earnings on the square' with their laborers."
